Guidelines

FLUX thanks you for taking the time to fill in this application, which may be made at any time; applications are accepted continually; there are as yet no deadlines, or processing fee. Please enter your name on each page of the application.
•Supplementary materials can be submitted in the following formats:
    •slides/transparencies •photographs/texts •vhs/svhs video tape •DVD/CD-rom/CD/links
If you would like this material back, please supply an SAE with your application,
FLUX cannot supply return postage of any materials submitted.

•   if you are filing this form in using a computer, you can use the reset button to clear all data entered if you need to, but please remember that this data cannot be saved unless you are using the full version of Abobe Acrobat; with Abobe Acrobat Reader, you must print the form when the form fields are complete.

•   for your convenience you can copy and paste text into the boxes from most WP programs, as long as the text does not contain any complex formatting.

•   when filling in PAGE 2 please provide at lease one paragraph which clearly explains why or how your project explicates the mission of FLUX. please feel free to supply additional pages if you feel these are necessary to your application, eg., these may include artists' bio's if this is a curatorial project, or a web architecture plan if this is a web-based project. when filing electronically, this additional info may be attached in Microsoft Word, raw text (ASCII), or .pdf formats. Also, make sure to give at least a rough estimation of the time needed to practically construct the project, and if your project involves very technical aspects of coding or electronics, we will need this information also.

•   Page 3 requires a detailed fiscal breakdown of the project, This information is as intrinsically important to your application being seriously considered as the any other part of the application.

• when complete, please send to the following address, whichever is relevant.
