9/28/08 Matinee 2pm;
10/3/08, 10/4/08 at 8pm

Redhouse brings one of New York's hottest young companies to Syracuse to perform this award winning play. A dark comedy about longing, loneliness and desire.

La Tragedie de Carmen

An adaptation by Peter Brook

11/14/08, 11/15/08, 11/16/08 at 8pm;
11/16/08 Matinee at 2pm

From the street to the stage...Syracuse Opera and Redhouse combine their theatrical and musical forces to bring this gritty love story to life.

Evolution

A new Play

*Written and Performed by Pat Buckley
Directed by Leslie Noble*

1/16/09, 1/17/09 at 8pm;
1/18/09 Matinee at 2pm

A brilliant solo show that weaves seamlessly through the lives of three women in a fascinating exploration of family ties, mental illness, and the evolution of whales.

Bones

Written and Directed by Kay Adshead

4/3/09, 4/4/09 at 8pm; 4/5/09 Matinee at 2pm

In association with Mama Quillo and the Bush Theatre in London, Redhouse brings this award playwright and her incredible piece of theatre to Syracuse for its American Premiere.

Friday Night Live from Redhouse!

9/12/08, 10/17/08, 11/28/08, 12/19/08, 1/23/08,
2/20/08, 3/20/08, 4/24/08 and 5/22/08 at 8pm.

A troupe of seasoned improvisational actors perform a series of games and scenarios based on audience participation. The series is the brain-child of Tim Mahar and Laura Austin, both products of Second City. Redhouse guarantees some serious laughs and no bodily injuries.
