

Redhouse

Theatre Season 2008-09

The Eaten Heart

September/October

A brand new play by The Debate Society

Redhouse brings one of New York's hottest young companies to Syracuse to perform this award winning play. A dark comedy about longing, loneliness and desire.

Performance Dates: 9/26 at 8pm Pascales Supper Club at 5:30pm
9/27 at 8pm
10/3 at 8pm
10/4 at 2pm Post Performance Talk Back
10/4 at 8pm

La Tragédie de Carmen

November

Adaptation by Peter Brook

Directed by Douglas Kinney Frost and Jeffrey Tangeman

From the Street to the stage....Redhouse and Syracuse Opera combine theatrical and musical forces to bring this gritty tale to life.

Performance Dates: 11/14 at 8pm Pascales Supper Club at 5:30pm
11/15 at 8pm
11/16 at 2pm Post Performance Talk Back

Evolution

January

A new play written and performed by Patricia Buckley

Directed by Leslie Noble

A brilliant solo show that weaves seamlessly through the lives of three women in a fascinating exploration of family ties, mental illness, and the evolution of whales.

Performance Dates: 1/8 at 8pm Pascales Supper Club at 5:30pm
1/9 at 8pm
1/10 at 8pm
1/11 at 2pm Post Performance Talk Back

Intrigulís

April/May

Written and performed by Carlo Alban

Direct from NY's critically acclaimed LAByrnth Theater Company comes this New Play written and performed by Carlo Alban. The story is inspired by Alban's own teenage years as both a regular on Sesame Street and an illegal immigrant from Equador with a fake green card.

Performance Dates: TBA - Check www.theredhouse.org for updates!

